Dear Parents

As you are aware, we recently changed how children come into school in the mornings. This was done to keep them warm and dry as well as hopefully improve punctuality. Unfortunately, early indications show that this is not the case. Please can we remind you all how important it is for children to be in the classrooms by 8:55 am for registration? It unsettles children and staff when they are late in. Well done to Ellie and Morgan in Year 6 and Silas in Year 3. They have all researched Martin Luther King Jr following our assembly on Monday. Have a great weekend.

Tim Wherry, Senior Head of School

Good to Be Green

Well done to all the children who continue to work hard and show excellent behaviour in school. 164 texts (82%) were sent to parents last Friday for children that had remained 'green' all week. Well done.

Sporting Update

On Tuesday, our Year 5/6 football team played in a cup game away to Mevagissey. At half time they were 3 nil down. During the second half Bugle scored 2 goals and hit the post twice, narrowly losing 3-2. A very exciting game and well done to all involved.

Kernow King 'The Cornish Caretakers'

Yesterday afternoon we were treated to a visit from the Cornish Caretakers. They are currently visiting schools around Cornwall and performing a comedy which educates, inspires and celebrates some of the people that have made Cornwall great! A workshop with Year 6 was then followed up with a performance in the hall to the juniors. Our visitors were extremely complimentary of the school and the children – brilliant!

Headlice

We are suffering from outbreaks of head lice throughout the school.

Lots of children get head lice, regardless of whether their hair is clean or dirty but dealing with this problem is only effective if everyone follows the routine for checking and treating an outbreak.

- The most important symptom is of course itching. This is caused by an allergic reaction to the saliva from the louse when it bites you. It feels like something is moving through your hair, which might tickle a bit.
- Red spots on the scalp. These are caused by lice bites, so look for these as well.
- Sores on your head which are caused by scratching

Wet combing involves removing head lice with a special fine-toothed comb. It's suitable for everyone and is relatively inexpensive.

Lice removal combs are available to buy. Combs with flat-faced teeth spaced 0.2-0.3mm apart are best for removing head lice, although combs with smaller gaps can be used to remove eggs and nits (egg cases).

A commonly used method is described below:

- Wash the hair with ordinary shampoo and apply plenty of conditioner.
- Use an ordinary, wide-toothed comb to straighten and untangle the hair.
- Once the comb moves freely through the hair without dragging, switch to the louse detection comb.
- Make sure the teeth of the comb slot into the hair at the roots, with the edge of the teeth lightly touching the scalp.
- Draw the comb down from the roots to the ends of the hair with every stroke and check the comb for lice each time – remove lice by wiping the comb with tissue paper or rinsing it.
- Work through the hair, section by section, so that the whole head of hair is combed through.
- Do this at least twice to help ensure you haven't missed any areas, until no more lice are found.
