SEND Information report and Local Offer

Date June 2019

Bugle School is an inclusive school and welcomes all children of any ability or disability. Children's abilities vary over a wide range, and many children have times, whether temporary or long term, when they need extra support.

Our local school offer details the provision that we provide within the school and the services that we access in order to appropriately meet the needs of all children, including those with additional needs and disabilities.

All staff and governors are involved in monitoring and evaluating the provision provided and are collectively responsible for the successful implementation of the offer to ensure success and achievement for all pupils.

Answers to Frequently asked Questions

How does Bugle School know if children/young people need extra help?

Children are closely monitored and assessed on a regular basis. Any concerns will be raised with parents at the earliest opportunity.

Who is responsible for the progress and success of my child in school and what should I do if I think my child may have special educational needs?

In school the class teacher has the day to day responsibility to ensure that your child is making good progress. In the first instance you are advised to meet with the class teacher to discuss your concerns. Class teachers are supported by the SENDCo and external agencies when necessary.

How will the curriculum be matched to my child's needs?

Each class teacher will set work which is differentiated and matched to your child's needs. Where work is differentiated your child may have access to additional resources to support them in their learning or have the support of a teaching assistant when necessary.

How will I know how my child is doing and how will you help me to support my child's learning?

School reports are sent home annually. Parents are strongly encouraged to attend target setting and parents' evening appointments throughout the year. However you are welcome to make an appointment at any time to see your child's class teacher to discuss their progress.

Parents are urged to listen to their child read at home on a regular basis and provide support for homework and spellings. In the Early Years parents are invited to attend sessions to understand the importance of supporting reading at home. Throughout the year 'Family Learning' workshops are run to support parents with their child's learning at home.

What support will there be for my child's overall wellbeing?

It is important that every child feels happy, safe and emotionally well. We use the SEAL (Social Emotional Aspects of Learning) programme for Personal, Social and Health Education (PSHE) lessons throughout the school.

There are however times when children and parents may be facing difficult or challenging times. Our school Parent Support Advisor is available a day a week to support families. Where events may be affecting a young person's performance in school we are able to provide some one-to-one intervention.

How will my child be included in activities outside the classroom including school trips?

Bugle School is a fully inclusive school and all children are expected to participate in class trips and visits, with appropriate adult support where necessary.

How will school prepare and support my child through the transition from key stage to key stage and beyond?

Transition between year groups is planned and well supported each year for all children. At key transition points parents are contacted and invited to the many transition events that we hold in conjunction with feeder Early Years setting and secondary schools.

Children that require more support are highlighted at meetings during the run up to these times, such as TAC meetings and Annual Reviews/EHC Transfers, and additional support is planned well in advance.

Who can I contact for further information?

The school secretary can be contacted for further information (sharon.tippett@bugleschool.org.uk) and a school prospectus is available on the school website. You may also wish to speak to the Head Teacher or SENDCo for more information on our provision.

What should I do if I feel that the Local Offer is not being delivered or is not meeting my child's needs?

Should a parent feel their child's needs are not being fully met through the School Offer, they are asked to meet with the Head Teacher in the first instance to discuss their concerns.

How is your Local Offer reviewed?

The School Offer will be reviewed annually or in line with changes to SEND legislation.
